

Maloto's sponsorship program gives the gift of education to vulnerable children living in extreme poverty in northern Malawi. Giving a child the opportunity to attend secondary school is transformational! And, the average cost in northern Malawi is $750/year, or less than $15 a week.

By contributing to Maloto's sponsorship fund, you are giving a young person the most generous gift of all – the ability to change their own life and dream of a better future!
